ASSOCIATION

Tea News Alert/An Online Publication of the Independence Hall Tea Party Association

Volume 1, Issue 2

Greetings Fellow Tea Partiers and Friends,

We apologize for sending you back-to-back Tea News Alert, but the issues are really heating up.

As Congress recesses for August, they're bringing the Washington hot air back home.

On Saturday and Sunday (August 1 & 2), we have two great opportunities to present our objections to the areas stuffiest politicians--Joe Sestak on Saturday and Arlen Specter on Sunday!

First Chance:

Our Delaware and Chester County members have asked us to forward this alert:

Joe Sestak is holding a Working Family Resources Summit this Saturday, August 1, 2009 at Interboro High School, 500 16th Avenue and Amosland Road, Prospect Park, PA 19076.

Registration will begin between 9:15 - 9:30 a.m.

We urge you to join us for an ObamaCare Protest. Since registration is between 9:15 - 9:30 a.m., we would like everyone to arrive by 9:00 a.m so that we can greet Sestak with picket signs and hand literature to attendees.

If you live in Sestak's Congressional District, we ask you to register and attend the meeting in order to challenge him on Healthcare or, if you wish, Cap and Trade. If you are not in his district, please show-up with picket signs anyway. (Remember, Sestak will most likely run for the U.S. Senate. He should be listening to all Pennsylvanians.)

We believe this is the only (public) district meeting Sestsak will hold during the August recess.

Second Chance: (Reminder)

Obama's Health and Human Services Secretary, Kathleen Sebelius, will take part, this Sunday, in a Specter Town Hall Meeting at the National Constitution Center.

Their agenda—promote ObamaCare.

Let Obama, Sebelius, and Specter know your thoughts on their plans to take control of 1/6 of the Nation's economy! Lobby Specter to vote against Cap and Trade (Tax).

Join us for a pre-event rally, Sunday, August 2, 1:30 PM at the Constitution Center (on Arch between 5th and 6th Streets. As other groups will also be protesting, look for our banner).

Bring your best signs on Health Care and Cap & Trade.

The Specter Town Hall Meeting begins at 3 PM.
